

Mitchell Alkon, First Term (2011)
Professional Representative

Mitchell is a principal in the law firm of Pasternak and Fidis, P.C. He has over 25 years of experience in all aspects of residential and commercial real estate, including drafting, negotiating and enforcing contracts and leases, title and escrow, and real estate litigation. Additionally, Mr. Alkon's practice extends to a wide range of business matters, including the purchase, sale and formation of and issues relating to corporations, joint ventures, and limited liability entities. Mitchell also serves as and counsels a variety of fiduciaries, including personal representatives, trustees, and guardians, and litigates matters pertaining to them.

Mr. Alkon graduated with honors from the State University of New York at Stony Brook and received his law degree from the Washington College of Law of The American University. He is admitted to practice in all state and federal courts in Maryland and the District of Columbia. He is a member of the Maryland State Bar Association and the Montgomery County Bar Association real estate section.